OUR STORY

1856 - Culinary Residence is named after the year Auburn University was founded.

♦
We are a teaching restaurant, providing lab courses for the students in the Horst Schulze School of Hospitality Management. Students are encouraged to learn real-world applications of the lessons taught in their academic lecture classes.

♦
Horst Schulze is a co-founder of the Ritz Carlton Hotels and inspires an education of high intent with a pursuit of excellence.

♦
Chef-in-Residence, Joël Antunes, works alongside our Ithaca Hospitality Partners Team, Auburn University's Horst Schulze School of Hospitality Management's Culinary Science Faculty and Auburn University's Horticulture team to create the world's finest teaching restaurant - a truly unique and elevated experience where education meets experiential dining.

♦
We partner with the Auburn University Horticulture Department to maintain our beautiful rooftop garden. When in season, we utilize herbs, flowers, seeds, and more from the garden in various aspects of our food and beverage menus.

♦
Thomas Price, the only Master Sommelier in the state of Alabama, curates our wine program.
